Everyday Learning & Growing Together - Me mātau Ra

Deputy Principal / Tumuaki Tuarua Vacancy

Kia ora Applicant,

Thank you for expressing an interest in our position of Deputy Principal / Tumuaki Tuarua at Beachlands School which is situated on the beautiful Pohutukawa Coast. Beachlands is a 20 minute drive to Howick, Manukau and Botany shopping areas, or hop on a 30 minute ferry ride from Pine Harbour and arrive in the heart of Queen Street.

Our school opened in 1934 with a roll of between 12 and 15 students with Ms Christina Malone being our school's foundation Principal. Our school roll continues to grow with an average Term 4 roll of 700 students.

At Beachlands School, we acknowledge and thank Ngai Tai ki Tamaki, our iwi, for their presence and leadership around our area and within our school. We are a Green-Gold Enviro School, a Travelwise school, and we partner with the Peace Foundation to deliver their Cool School Mediator Programme.

We also partner with The Education Group for growth coaching and Evaluation Associates with embedding formative practices. Our motto 'Everyday Learning & Growing Together - Me mātau Ra' is our experience, where working together, being creative and finding solutions is our school culture.
